

Tate Britain has commissioned Sarah Lucas to create its Christmas tree for 2006, which will be on display from 8 December.

Every year since 1988 Tate has commissioned a leading contemporary artist to design its Christmas tree. From 1991 the commissioned artist has also created the Director's Christmas card.
www.tate.org.uk/britain/exhibitions/christmastree/

With best wishes
for Christmas and
the New Year