Glam! The Performance of Style

8 February – 12 May 2013

Glam, a visually extravagant pop style which exploded across Britain during the years 1971–5, embraced high and low culture and played with identity and gender definitions. Glam! The Performance of Style at Tate Liverpool will be the first exhibition to explore glam style and sensibility in-depth, examining its relationship to painting, sculpture, film, performance and installation art in Britain, across Europe and in North America.

Groups tickets £6.20 per person (£4.40 concessions)

Chagall: Modern Master

7 June – 29 September 2013

Marc Chagall (1887–1985) is one of the great artists of the last century. Bringing together more than sixty paintings and a selection of works on paper from across the world, Chagall: Modern Master takes a fresh look at this compelling artist who created some of the most poetic and enduring images of the twentieth century. This exhibition will be the first major presentation of the Russian painter's work in the UK for more than fifteen years.

Groups tickets £9.00 per person (£6.50 concessions)

Introductory Talks

Delivered before you enter your exhibition of choice, our introductory talks will provide a context for the exhibition you are about to see. Introductory talks are delivered by knowledgeable members of staff and will help you and your group get the most out of your visit to the gallery.
