Health and safety statement for visiting groups to Tate galleries

When planning a visit to one of the Tate galleries, groups are advised to ensure that a competent person carries out a risk assessment relevant to their particular group's needs. The gallery cannot assume a specific duty of care for your group.

Tate complies with all Health and Safety and Fire Safety legislation and relevant Local Authority and licensing regulations. The galleries are subject to regular inspections by these bodies and conducts its own internal audit procedure.

We maintain high standards of public safety and carry out regular reviews of our risk assessments. Where there is an identified hazard and for public areas where we are introducing elements, such as new exhibitions or displays, these are recorded and can be made available for inspection by appropriate authorities.

As a non-departmental body, Tate is not required to carry out Public Liability insurance.

As part of our commitment to the safety and security of our visitors, we always have security staff and invigilators on duty who are trained in emergency response procedures, including first aid.

CCTV is in operation throughout the gallery and is monitored by trained staff. Tate is registered in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998

Thank you. We hope you enjoy your visit
