1. Your details

Name (contact person)
Name of company (if applicable)
Contact address
Website
Contact email
Contact telephone number

2. Previous work

Tell us who you are and what creative digital projects you have done in the past (150 words maximum). You may include links to your website or other web pages to help illustrate your previous work and skills.

3. Your unique idea in an 'elevator pitch'

In response to the brief and core objectives listed on Tate's website and in the IK Prize 2016 entry pack, outline in no more than 250 words how your project idea - using some form of digital technology - demonstrates originality and ingenuity in the application of artificial intelligence to the task of engaging the public with art on display at Tate Britain and/or on the Tate website.

Please also give your project idea a short provisional title.

I hereby agree to the IK Prize Rules and Terms and Conditions of entry to the 2016 competition as set-out on Tate's website (www.tate.org.uk/ikprize) and in the entry pack.
