

'It makes me look at things in a different way'

Small Steps in a Big Space
Local parents and toddlers programme

'I would like to do more talking about different artworks, working out what the artist is getting at'

Seniors Programme
Regular series of events for local seniors

'To reflect on the impact which art has on my life and to start to share this'

Community Advocates
Building partnerships in the community

'To feel the freedom to say what I am thinking'

Community Advocates
Building partnerships in the community

'Before this, we felt modern art was not really accessible to all'

Continuing Professional Development Programme
Training for community group leaders, organisations and local businesses

Why talk about art?

MODERN
TATE

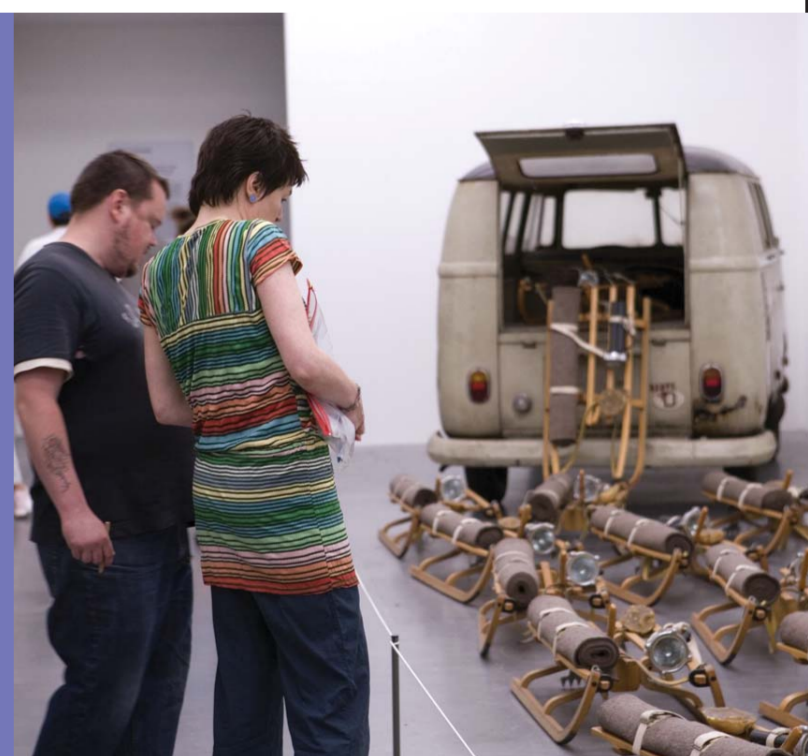

'Because there is more than one way of expressing an idea and everyone's voice and message is important'

Croydon College Access
Art and Design Project
Partnership programme

'It is much more powerful than individual looking, more effective and stimulating'

Art into Life
Free gallery introductions for community groups and organisations

'Because it provides a way to relate to the artwork'

Continuing Professional Development Programme
Training for community group leaders, organisations and local businesses

To find out more about Tate Modern's Community Programme visit www.tate.org.uk/modern/eventseducation/community or call Joleen, Heather or Alison on 020 7401 5068/5069