MILDRED AND THE COPYCAT

JONO GANZ

The hotly anticipated next adventure for the beloved Mildred the Gallery Cat, whose secret career as an artist comes under threat by aloof street artist, Barksy...

In a grand gallery, in a little basket, there lay a secret artist named Mildred.

Mildred enjoys spending each night creating unique art to delight and mystify gallery goers. But when an aloof street artist named Barksy starts taking credit for her work, she must scheme, plot and conspire to unmask the impawster...

Inspired by the real Mildred – the much-loved resident cat at Tate Modern – this rambunctious sequel will thrill and enchant all artists, big and small.

Jono Ganz draws and writes in his home in London, which he shares with his wife, their cat, and a 19th century weaving loom. He likes folklore, wonky shapes and the music of ABBA.

His debut book for children, Mildred the Gallery Cat, was shortlisted for the 2023 Klaus Flugge Prize for illustration.

THE HUNTING OF THE SNARK

LEWIS CARROLL AUTHOR
TOVE JANSSON ILLUSTRATOR

Newly reissued, this beautiful jacketed edition of Lewis Carroll's nonsense poem, illustrated with perfect whimsy by Tove Jansson, follows an eccentric crew in search of that most mysterious and elusive of creatures: the Snark.

Tove Jansson, the creator of Moomin Valley and its magical inhabitants, was commissioned to illustrate a Swedish edition of Lewis Carroll's miniature masterpiece. It proved an inspired choice, as the enigmatic charms of Jansson's illustrative style bring to life the beauty and strangeness of Carroll's tale. The minds of two of the greatest children's authors of the past 150 years meet on the page.

Lewis Carroll (1832–98), the pseudonym of Charles Lutwidge Dodgson, was an English author, poet, mathematician and photographer, best known for Alice's Adventures in Wonderland (1865), one of the best-selling children's books of all-time.

Tove Jansson was a Swedish-speaking Finnish author, novelist, painter, illustrator and comic strip author. Most famous for her much-loved Moomin novel series for children, Jansson's books have been translated into over forty languages.

The Landing

'Just the place for a Snark!' the Billman cried,
As he landed his crew with care;
Supporting each man on the top of the tide
By a finger entwined in his hair.

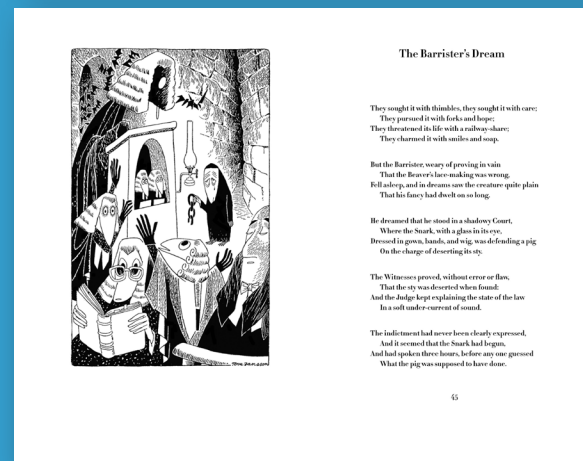

'Just the place for a Snark!' I have said it twice:
That shore should enchanting the crew,
Just the place for a Snark! I have said it thrice:
What I tell you three times is true.'

The crew was complete: it included a Bunter -
A waker of Bonnets and Bands -
A Bunter, brought to arrange their disputes -
And a Bower, to value their goods.

A Billard maker, whose skill was immense,
Might perhaps have won more than his share -
But a Bunter, engaged at enormous expense,
Had the whole of their cash in his care.

There was also a Bower, that paced on the deck,
Or would it making lace in the loom:
And had often the Billman said need them from wreck,
Though none of the sailors knew him.

The Barrister's Dream

They sought it with thinking, they sought it with care;
They pursued it with forks and hope;
They threatened its life with a railway share;
They charmed it with smiles and soap.

But the Barrister, weary of grooving its vain
That the Bower's lace-making was wrong,
Fell asleep, and in dreams saw the creature quite plain
That his fancy had dwelt on so long.

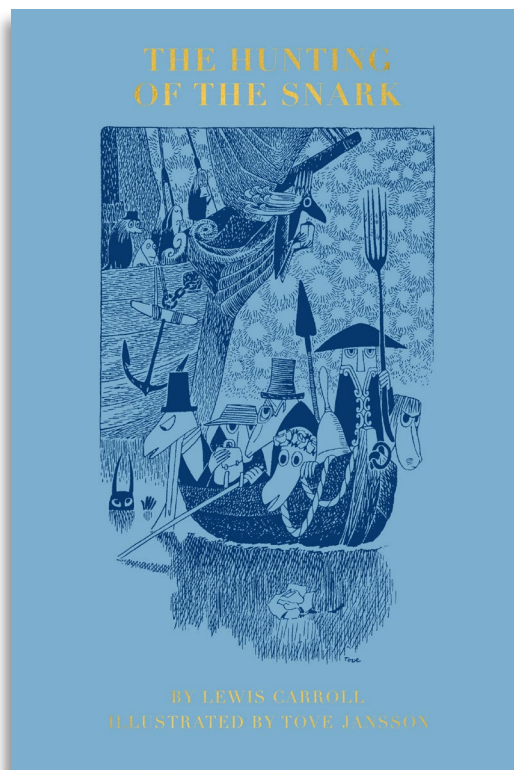

He dreamed that he stood in a shadowy Court,
Where the Snark, with a gleam in its eye,
Dressed in gowns, bands, and wig, was defending a pig
On the charge of deserting its sty.

The Witnesses proved, without error or flaw,
That the sty was deserted when found;
And the Judge kept explaining the state of the law
In a soft under-current of sound.

The indictment had never been clearly expressed,
And it seemed that the Snark had begun,
And had spoken three hours, before any one guessed
What the pig was supposed to have done.
