

O

IS FOR ORI

IS FOR ORI

Ori is the word for head in Yoruba, a language spoken in Nigeria. It refers to the head as the root of one's power.

As a group, discuss the different ways that heads can be powerful. (Use the space alongside to make notes or a list.)

YOU WILL NEED TO HOLD THE LAST TWO QUESTIONS IN YOUR HEAD AS YOU EXPLORE THE GALLERY

Scrunch up your paper into a ball. This is your head. Carry your head around the gallery as you look at the artworks on display.

How does it feel? What other examples of power can you find?
